Session: Innovation/Prototype Validation

Converting invention into innovation or prototype is important aspect in the modern and competitive world. In this regards Institution's Innovation council organized session on Innovation/prototype validation. Dr. Abhijeet Mulik, President of IIC guided students and participants about how to develop your idea into prototype. What are the qualities required in students to develop ideas.

He also motivated students about the creating an environment of developing ideas and validating it.

Dr. P. V. Khairmode introduced Dr. Mulik to audience and Dr. I. A. Dhole expressed vote of thanks.
