A Report

I am happy to present the report of a workshop on Student Support & Alumni Engagement held on Sunday 15th January 2023 in A1-11. The workshop was chaired by Dr. Mohan Rajmane, Principal, S.G.M. College, Karad.

The Inaugural function of the workshop started at 10.00 am with the words of welcome by Shri. M.N. Gaikwad. In his welcome speech, he asserted that the college is a NAAC designated mentor college and a UGC PARAMARSHA beneficiary. The college has been empowering 10 mentee colleges in all aspects of NAAC. He said that the college under IQAC has organized 22 activities for mentee colleges from Dec 2019 till date which include National level seminars, workshops, Guest lectures at the respective places of mentee colleges. He asserted that these activities have been organized on Sundays to ensure the larger participation of all the faculty of mentee colleges. He said that under RUSA- NAAC Mentoring activities, the IQAC proposed to organize 6 workshops on various systems & procedures as prescribed by NAAC. Further he said that today's event is one of these activities. He welcomed the Chair, the mentors and all the faculty of mentee colleges.

In his welcome address, Dr.M.M.Rajmane asserted that NAAC expects that each and every HEI should come in the fabric of assessment and accreditation. For this purpose, he assured all the faculty members to provide all kinds of help in terms of logistics, expertise to the Mentee colleges to acquire the NAAC Accreditation to help them achieve the benefits.

In the Presidential address, Dr. Kamble S.M. congratulated the Principal and the IQAC for conducting such mentor mentee workshops on NAAC related issues. He elaborated on the importance of Student Support & Alumni Engagement.
